

Maujizats (Miracles) of Rasool-Allah (Salallahu Alaihi Wasallam)

We are going to describe a few Mu'jizats of Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). These are:-

1. The greatest miracle of Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) is the Holy Quran which was revealed upon him. Till this day no person has been able to bring a verse equal to that of the Holy Quran.
2. The splitting of the Moon was another great miracle. When Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) was 52 years old, the leaders of the disbelievers of the Quraish tribe came to him and said, "If you are a Prophet, then split the moon into two parts." Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) dearly wanted the people to convert to Islam, especially his close friends and relatives. He prayed, raising up his hands, and the moon split into two equal halves. Each part of the moon was seen above different mountains. The disbelievers said, "Muhammad (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) has performed magic." They did not accept Islam.
3. Once, while the Muslims were in the midst of a battle with the disbelievers, their water ran out. Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) dipped his blessed hands into some water and water began to flow from his blessed fingers. This water filled a container, and only stopped until he took his blessed hand out of the water. It is said that in the Battle of Tabuk 70 000 Sahaba and their animals drank this water and used it.
4. One day, Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) met a person who was holding an idol in his hand: "Will you accept Islam if this idol talks to me?" The idol worshipper said, "I have been worshipping this idol for 50 years and it has never spoken to me. How will it speak to you?" Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) looked at the idol and asked, "Who am I?" A voice was heard from the idol saying: "You are the Prophet of Almighty Allah." When the idol worshipper heard this, he immediately became a Muslim.
5. A disbeliever came to Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) and asked him: "How do I know that you are the Prophet of Allah?" Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) answered: "Would you believe in me if that bunch of dates hanging on that tree comes near me when I order it to?" He said that he would. Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) called the bunch of dates. The bunch of dates hobbled over to him. He then said, "Go back to your place." The dates then went back to its place again. The disbeliever, on seeing this miracle, became a Muslim.
6. One day Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) asked a peasant to convert to Islam. The peasant said that he would accept Islam on condition that Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) revive his neighbour's daughter, who was dead. Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) and the peasant went to a certain grave where the girl was buried. Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) called the dead girl by her name. A voice was heard from the grave. The girl appeared. Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) asked the girl: "Do you want to come back to the world?" The girl answered: "O Prophet of Almighty Allah! I do not want to come back to the world. I am happier here than I was in my father's house. The next world for a Muslim is better than this world." The peasant immediately accepted Islam.
7. A dumb boy, who was quite grown up, was brought to Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). He asked the boy: "Who am I?" The boy answered: "You are the Prophet of Almighty Allah." Thereafter, the boy was able to speak until his death.
8. Sayyiduna Muhammad bin Haatib (radi Allahu anhu) says: "I was young and some boiling water was poured on my body. I was burnt. My father took me to Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). He rubbed his blessed saliva along the burnt places on my body and then prayed. Immediately, those parts were healed."
9. A woman once sent some honey to Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) as a present. He accepted the present and sent back the "empty" pot. But, when she took the pot, she saw that the pot was full of honey. The woman returned to the Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) and asked: "O Prophet of Allah! (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) Why did you not accept my present? I wonder, what is my sin?" Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) answered, "We have accepted your present. The honey that you see in your pot is the blessing given by Almighty Allah for your present." The woman and her children ate this honey for many months. One day, she unknowingly put the honey into another pot. In the new pot, the honey was eventually used up. It was reported to Sayyiduna

Rasulullah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) about what had happened. He declared: "If it had been left in the pot that I sent, they would have eaten it until the end of the world; it would not have decreased at all."

10. Sayyiduna Anas bin Maalik (radi Allahu anhu) had a shawl which was given to him by Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) had wiped his blessed face with it. Sayyiduna Anas (radi Allahu anhu) also used it. When the shawl became stained, he placed it into the fire to remove the stains. Miraculously, the fire never burnt the shawl but it cleaned the stain on it. This was because the shawl had touched the blessed body of Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam).
11. In the battle of Badr, one of the eyeballs of Sayyiduna Qatadah bin Noman (radi Allahu anhu) was plucked out and fell on his cheek. He was in great pain and agony. The Sahaba decided to free him from the pain by cutting off his eye completely. One of the Sahaba advised that he be taken to Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) put the eyeball back into its place with his blessed hand. He prayed, saying: "O My Allah! Make his eye beautiful." Sayyiduna Qatadah (radi Allahu anhu's) eye was more beautiful than the other one. He used to see more clearly with that eye.
12. During the Battle of Badr, Sayyiduna Okkasha bin Muhsin (radi Allahu anhu) broke his sword on the armour of one of his enemies. When Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) saw him, he gave him a stick and said to him: "Go and fight." As soon as the stick passed into his hands, it changed into a sharp sword. He fought fiercely with it and killed many enemies. Sayyiduna Okkasha (radi Allahu anhu) always carried that sword and fought many battles with it. He named the sword "Aun" or "Help and Victory."
13. There was a Sahabi by the name of Sayyiduna Safina (radi allahu anhu). He was freed by Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam's) wife, Sayyidah Umme Salma (radi Allahu anha). He served Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) loyally. He was captured by the disbelievers during the war against the Romans. But, he managed to escape from them. On his way back, he met a lion. He told the lion that he was the servant of Muhammadur Rasoolullah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam). He also explained to the lion what had happened to him. The lion rubbed himself on Sayyiduna Safina (radi Allahu anhu) and said: "Walk with me!" They walked together until Muslim soldiers were seen. Then, the lion left.
14. Sayyiduna Zaid bin Harith (radi Allahu anhu), a very great Sahabi, was travelling to a distant land. The mule rider, whom he had hired, wanted to kill him. Sayyiduna Zaid bin Haarith (radi Allahu anhu) sought permission from the mule rider to perform two Rakaah of Nafil Salaah. The mule rider agreed. At the end of his Salaah, the Sahabi called out "Ya Arhamar Rahimeen" 3 times. As he called out this name each time, a voice was heard saying, "Do not kill him!" Suddenly, a cavalryman with a sword in his hand appeared and killed the mule rider. Then, turning to Sayyiduna Zaid bin Harith (radi Allahu anhu), the man said, "When you began to say, 'Ya Arhamar Rahimeen,' I was in the seventh heaven. When you said it for the second time, I had reached the first heaven. The moment that you recited it for the third time, I was here and I rescued you." Sayyiduna Zaid bin Harith (radi Allahu anhu) immediately understood that he (the man) was an Angel sent by Almighty Allah to assist him.
15. It was witnessed many times, how the gravel or the food in the blessed hands of Sayyiduna Rasulallah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam), sounded like bees and recited the Names of Almighty Allah.
