

Miracles And Karamaat

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

A Wali by the name of Sayyid Shah Muhammad Waris Rasool Numa (alaimur Rahma) in India had the name "Muhammad" naturally in green colour on the palm of his right hand and scent of 'Ittar used to come from his body. From a young age he used to see the Prophet (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) in his dream and also helped others to see. He was thus known as "Rasool Numa".

In 555 A.H. (1160), a great Saint known as Sheikh Ahmed Rifaa'i Awliyah-e-Kabeera (radi Allahu anhu) went to the Roza-e-Anwar of Rasoolullah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) and said: "As Salaamu alaika ya Jaddi", and the reply was, "Wa alaikas Salaam Ya Waladi". Sheikh Ahmed Rifaa'i then made Du'a and the Prophet (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) extended his blessed hand from the grave and made Musaafa with him. He then kissed the hand of Rasoolullah (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) and the blessed hand went back into the Roza-e-Anwar. Almost 99 000 people saw and heard of this, amongst whom was Sheikh Abdul Qadir Jilani (radi Allahu anhu).

In Larkana, Pakistan, two villagers were arguing about the status of the Holy Prophet (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) as also being Haazir and Naazir, i.e. the Messenger of Allah being omnipresent and omniscient, as well as the Prophet (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) having total authority. Haroon, belonging to the Wahabi/Deobandi Sect, rejected this. To prove who is correct, both decided to jump into a burning fire to demonstrate that the one who is unharmed is true in what he says.

Thus, Mohammed Panah, a staunch Sunni Bareilwi, and the other person, Haroon, both jumped into the fire. Mohammed Panah did so whilst engaging himself in the recitation of Durood Shareef and Salaat-o-Salaam and came out untouched, whilst the other was severely burnt and had to be admitted to hospital with multiple degree burns. Thousands of astonished people are witnesses to this event. This incident happened on Wednesday, the 11th of February 1998. (Daily Jura'at, Issue No. 96, 13 February 1998)

How did A'la Hazrat Ash Shah Imam Ahmed Raza Bareilwi (radi Allahu anhu) become a Hafiz-ul-Quran? It has been stated that in the time period from Wudhu till the time of Jamaat, Hadrat Allamah Sadrush Shariat (radi Allahu anhu) would recite one Sipara. Sayyiduna A'la Hadrat (radi Allahu anhu) would listen to it and, thereafter, recite the same Sipara in the Taraweeh Salaah. He continued this routine for 30 days, and by the end of the month of Ramadaan, A'la Hadrat (radi allahu anhu) became a complete Hafiz of the Holy Quran!
